

SAVE FACE OR SAFE PLACE?

2012 ACCESS FUNDRAISING DINNER

In Support of
 Asian Christian Counseling &
ACCESS™ Educational Seminar Services, Inc.

Saving face is engrained in Asian culture, with both good and bad social effects. While meant for good, it can often make it harder to be honest and real with ourselves and others. The same can happen in churches where we show up in our "Sunday best." Come join us for an evening of great food and music, as our guest speaker Rev. David D. Lee talks about rising above social and cultural barriers to create safe communities where we can really be ourselves and talk about our deepest needs. Rev. Lee is a pastor in the Atlanta area and has a heart for counseling.

Your support enables us to provide culturally-sensitive and language-appropriate counseling services for the Asian and Asian American in the Metro Atlanta area.
