

Caring for those in

CRISIS:

Understanding Grief & Domestic Violence

When someone we care about is deeply grieved or suffering from domestic violence, we often feel helpless. If you would like to be better equipped to help people through crises like these, then this seminar is for you.

Come, learn how to walk alongside the hurting with love and wisdom.

Seminars:

Understanding Grief

Learn about the grief process and various ways of grieving
Understand different types of crisis and how to help others in crisis

* Domestic Violence

Learn about domestic violence and the prevalence of this phenomenon
Understand the vicious Cycle of Violence and its impact

Panel Discussion

Experienced ministers, pastors, and professionals will share about ways to help others through grief and domestic violence

*(Seminar and panel discussion on domestic violence to be presented in Mandarin)

REGISTRATION

Early Registration deadline: 8/10

Fee: $ 10 Early Registration
$ 20 After 8/10

Please add $5 to the fee to order lunch
Make check payable to: ACCESS, Inc.
Mail registration form and payment to:

P.O. Box 4527
Alpharetta, GA 30023

Speakers: Rebekah Wang M.S., LMFT

Lydia Teh M.A., LAPC

Date: August 20, 2005 (Saturday)

Time: 10 AM -- 4 PM

Venue: ACCC Chapel (downstairs)

Atlanta Chinese Christian Church
4434 Britt Road, Tucker GA 30084

REGISTRATION FORM

Name: _____ Tel: _____ Church: _____

Gender: F / M Address: _____ E-mail: _____

Fee: Check or Cash _____

Total: $10 $15 $20 $25 _____

Order Lunch: YES NO
(Please add $5 if ordering lunch)
(ACCCN members may turn in their registration forms and payments in the offering box)